Dear Sisters and Brothers,

You may review the full text of the Tentative Agreement between the CWA-IBT Association of Passenger Service Employees and American Airlines by clicking on this link:

We are working on a schedule of Explanation Meetings and will announce the dates and locations as soon as they are finalized.

In the next week or so, BallotPoint, the independent organization conducting the ratification vote, will mail a package to all eligible voters including a summary of the Tentative Agreement, voting instructions, and a PIN for use in online or telephone voting.

In unity,

Ron Collins
